CAPTURE OF TWO DUTCH FRIGATES.

[London Gazette.]

Sirius Grinsby Roads, Nov. 1, '98.

I have the honor to inform your Lordship, that in pursuance of orders I received from Rear-Admiral Sir. Richard Onslow, Bart. I joined company with the fleet on the evening of the 3d instant, to reconnoitre the force of the enemy in the Texel. At eight A. M. on the following morning, the Texel bearing S. by E. ten leagues, I fell in with the two Dutch frigates named in the margin*, at that time about two miles distanee from each other.

Passing within gun shot of the leeward-most of them, I stood on until I could (upon tacking) nearly fetch the weather-most (the Waakzaambeid), my object being to prevent their junction; and by this means, that being accomplished, I had the satisfaction to cut off the latter, and bring her too about nine o'clock, when she hauled down her colors and fired a gun to leeward; as soon as the prisoners were exchanged, I made sail after the other, and although nearly out of sight, I had the good fortune before five P. M. to bring her to a kind of running action, which continued about half an hour, within musket shot at times, during which she kept up a smart but ill-directed discharge of cannon and musquetry, when she struck to his majesty's ship: she is called the Furie, and under the orders of the Captain of the Waakzaambeid, and had the Commandant of the Troops and a number of Officers on board. I am happy to add, there were only one man wounded by a musket-ball, and that his Majesty's ship suffered but little, one shot through her bowsprit: her rigging, &c. have suffered much.

This Expedition has been waiting an opportunity of sailing since the 21st of July last. They left the Texel at eleven o'clock the preceding night.

I have the honor to be, &c.
RICH. KING.

* Waakzaambeid, Captain Neiarce, Senior Captain, mounting 26 guns, 24 nine-pounders on the forecastle, having 100 hundred Dutch seamen, and 122 French troops, (total 222) on board, also 2000 stand of arms, besides other ordinance stores.

Furie, Capt. Pietz, of 36 guns, 24 twelve pounders on the deck, and ten six-pounders on her quarter-deck, and forecastle, with 153 Dutch seamen, and 165 French troops (total 311) on board, also 4000 stand of arms, besides other ordnance stores.

November 16.

A Commercial Treaty with the Emperor of Russia—a Commercial Treaty with the Emperor of Germany—a commercial Treaty with the King of Prussia—a Commercial Treaty with the Ottoman Porte—a Commercial Treaty with the King of Spain! are all at this moment on the anvil; besides several inferior treaties, such as one with the King of Naples, which, we are told, is actually concluded. By these treaties we expect to have the navigation of every sea opened to our trade; and what the French are endeavouring to accomplish by the revolutionary torrent, we are aiming to obtain by compromise.

On Friday last a committee of Merchants were consulted on various points in these projected conventions, and it is expected that the wide extended plain will be made known soon after the meeting of parliament. By the treaty with the Turks the expectation is formed of securing all the advantages of that short communication with India which Buonaparte's expedition was intended to open to France by force of arms. The Levant trade will be revived, and by the free navigation of the Bosphorus and the Black Sea, we expect to penetrate by the Danube into the heart of Germany.

The treaty with Spain is by no means chimerical. We have good reasons for believing that the ground is opened. Offers have been made too tempting to be resisted, and the only difficulty is how to protect Spain from the vengeance of the French on the Pyrenean frontier. It is not impossible that a Russian army may be destined to this service, while the collected wealth of several years, which has been detained in South-America for fear of its falling into the hands of the English on its passage, and of the French on its landing, will be brought home under the convoy of the British Marine.

American Agents have purchased several of our recent prizes; and Government has suffered them to enter our docks for equipment.

DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA, TO WIT: BE IT REMEMBERED,

(L S) THAT on the twelfth day of August, in the twenty-third year of the Independence of the United States of America, Benjamin Smith Barton, of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as author in the words following, to wit:

"New Views of the Origin of the Tribes and "Nations of America—By Benjamin Smith Bar-"ton, M. D. In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, intitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietor, of such copies during the times therein mentioned."

SAMUEL CALDWELL, Clerk, Dist. of Penn'
November 2, 1798.

To the Honorable Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Philadelphia, with the Magistrates of the Northern and Southern Liberties, Committee of Health, &c.

GENTLEMEN,

THE return of the late pestilential fever to the city, is a matter of general alarm to the community, particularly from the dispersion of beding, &c. that may have been occupied by the sick, and the neglect of domestic cleanliness in some part that may be essential; for although suitable attention to quarantine may prevent the future importation of the disease (if of foreign origin)—or that many of the primary causes (if domestic) may be removed, yet some of the former may remain sufficient to renew the calamity; and as the contagion never has and perhaps never can be analized, it ought to be guarded at every point, as one neglected may frustrate the whole.

Therefore, if possible to remove or prevent every source of the calamity, and to co-operate with the other means proposed, I beg to submit to your consideration the following system, to be adopted or discontinued as you may see proper.

1st. Let the city and liberties be formed into committees of one person from every ten houses, beginning from No. 1 to 19, and from 2 to 20, and so on to the end of each street or alley; if at the end there is five or under, let them be added to the adjoining committee; if six or upwards, let them form themselves into one.

2d. Let these committees meet and appoint a time when each house in their limits shall be visited and carefully examined by all, or at least two of each ten, whom they may appoint in turn. Let them elect one member from each committee to form a district or ward committee, who shall receive thereports, &c. The district committee shall elect one from their number to form a city committee, who shall preside and report to the magistrates, committee of health, governor, &c. as they shall see requisite; and appoint or prorogue their own, or the meetings of the other committees, as they shall judge necessary.

As the success of the design depends chiefly on the careful observation of the first committee, I beg to propose what I think they ought particularly to attend to; and though I may omit some things that may merit attention, I hope nothing necessary will be neglected.

1st. Is the pump water good in the neighborhood, or does it acquire any particular appearance, taste or smell at different seasons, changes of weather, &c.?

2d. Is the street or alley kept clean?

3d. Is the foot walk or gutters kept clean?

4th. Is there any ponds of stagnant water or other nausence near?

5th. Is the necessary kept clean—when was it emptied—do they throw quick lime into it frequently—has it communication with a common sewer—is that offensive?

6th. Are the warehouses and wharves kept clean—do they perceive any offensive smell from them, or from the discharge of certain cargoes, or the holds of vessels, that make them feel sick?

7th. Is their back yard kept clean?

8th. Are the cellar vaults kept clean—are they frequently aired—are they damp—will a candle burn clear in them?

9th. Is the house kept clean?

10th. Has any person been sick in the house during the late fever, or are any sick at present, and what is their complaint?

Suppose these committees organized, and to meet every Monday for a certain time, and to report their proceedings to the ward committees, who should meet every Wednesday and report to the city committee, who should meet every Friday, or more or less frequent as occasion might point out. This system is easily accomplished, as the attendance is so much divided, and, if duly attended to, it would with certainty ascertain the real state of the city and suburbs, as frequently and as long as it was necessary, and compose the minds of the community, who are at present distracted by every report. By this Day's Mail.

NEW-YORK, January 23.

We acknowledge our obligations to two highly reſpectable houſes in this city, for Hamburgh papers to the 14th Nov. received by the Franklin arrived yeſterday in 56 days from Hamburgh. Although we received them at a late hour, we delayed our paper that we might add to it all the important information that our file contained. On a nice inſpection we were much diſappointed to find that their contents are in general of very little conſequence. The following articles appearing to have the firſt claim of our attention in point of conſequence, we have tranſlated them for vhis day's Merchantile Advertiſer.

Vienna, 24th October.

A courier from Conſtautinople arrived yeſterday to the Turkiſh Ambaſſador here. It is reported that the diſpatches, amongſt other things, ſtate the ſituation of Buonaparte's Army; that it had overpowered ſeveral of the Beys: but afterwards in its turn had been completely defeated by them. As the Turkiſh Envoy has not tho't fit to publiſh any thing on the ſubject, we do not think fit to place any great reliance on the report. Private letters ſtate that Buonaparte, as well as Berthier, were made priſoners: but theſe letters alſo we do not place any reliance on, ſince the Court Gazette of this day is ſilent on the ſubject.

Agreeable to accounts from Conſtantinople, the Porte has requeſted from the court of Sweden and another court, to fulfill the ſtipulations which are ſpecified in the different treaties with thoſe powers.

Since the Malteſe had ſucceeded to get poſſeſſion of their Iſlands, there are (agreeable to letters from Naples) arrived ſeveral veſſels of the nations in amity with France, which have taken poſſeſſion of the Malteſe. It is ſaid that the French commander of Malta has been killed in the laſt affray; and afterwards, many civil officers, known friends to the French, ſome have been murdered, and ſome arreſted.

We hear that already ſome of the old knights of Malta are waiting at Trieſte to embark at Malta, to reinſtate the old Government, in caſe the French ſhould have been compelled to quit the Iſland.

Trieſte, October 19th.

Veſſels which have lately arrived here from the Adriatic ſea, bring accounts that a Ruſſian fleet had arrived in the roads of Zante and Cephalonia, and had taken poſſeſſion of both theſe Iſlands in the name of the Emperor of Ruſſia. There was but a very feeble force in both theſe places: but the Iſland of Corfu is well fortified by the French, and is ſuppoſed to be able to ſtand a ſiege. The confirmation of this account, through an official channel, we are in expectation of.

Paris, Nov. 5.

The Journal Ami des Loix, contains ſomething worthy of obſervation. It ſays, that a party who ſome time ago diſputed Buonaparte's talents, but are now in his favor, make no ſcruple of declaring, that the directory had ſent him to Egypt to be ſacrificed—The journaliſt contradicts the report, on account of the director Merlin, having ſent his own ſon with him, and Buonaparte always ſpoke with the greateſt joy of this expedition, called it the grand undertaking, and wiſhed the project to be put into execution.

The crew of the ſchooner Biche, which arrived at Breſt, ſay, that the ſhip of the line Hoche, after the engagement, ſunk, and every ſoul on board periſhed; likewiſe that general Bompard was killed in the action. [According to the Engliſh news Hoche had arrived on the coaſt of Ireland.]

A letter from col. Marchais, commander of a battalion gives an account of a very ſerious ſtorm which on the 28th Sept. raged on the coaſt of Mizza in ſo violent a manner, that the ſeventh half Brigade which was on their march to the Army of Italy, on the road to Saorigo, was obliged to make a halt on account of the incredible hail and wind. The rocks in different parts were torn to pieces, and the roads filled with water and broken rocks, in ſuch a manner that the ſoldiers were obliged to climb thereon to ſave their lives. Four waggons, loaded with the treaſures of the Army, and likewiſe the baggage of the officers of Brigade, were hurried into the ſtream by a large ridge of rocks breaking to pieces, and every article loſt."

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of the firſt reſpectability to his friend in this city, dated Hamburgh 26th October, received by the Franklin, arrived yeſterday.

"It is very probable that a general peace will take place this winter—on account of the general deſtruction of the French fleet at Alexandria, the loſs of 40 or 50,000 of their beſt troops, the remainder of their marines, the probability of a war with America, the declaration of war by the Turks, the alliance between Ruſſia and the Emperor of Germany, the general diſſatisfaction of the inhabitants of Italy, and the juſtifiable indignation of the brave Swiſs, the general enmity of Europe, the deficiency of 105 millions of livres in the Franch finances, their total loſs of credit, and the refuſal of the young men to join the armies; all theſe circumſtances together, induce me to believe, that if they commence another campaign, their fate will be a total overth ow.

The following was this morning Communicated to Congress by the President of the United States.

TO THE
PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES.

SIR,

IN reading, ſince it was printed, my report on French affairs, which you were pleaſed to lay before Congreſs on the 21ſt inſtant, I have obſerved an error in the 20th page, which led to another in the 21ſt, which it is deſirable to have corrected. I regret this incident the more, as the corrections cannot be made without troubling you and Congreſs with a formal communication.

In page 20, lines 10 and 11 from the bottom, inſtead of the words in the parentheſis (about the Conſular Convention) ſhould have been inſerted the words (about the examination of reciprocal damages)

In page 21, beginning in the 21ſt line, after the word oſtenſible, the next ſentence ſhould run thus:—In the miniſter's laſt mentioned letter, after ſaying that his "ſecond point" (to fix the meaning of the treaties between the two countries) was moſt important, "as it embraced the ſource of all the differences," and that to this they ſhould firſt attend—he purpoſely paſſes by the moſt intereſting queſtions which it involves, and ſends Mr. Gerry a note on the Conſular Convention, of all poſſible ſubjects in difference the moſt inſignificant; &c.

I have the honor to be with perfect reſpect,
Sir,
your moſt obedient ſervant
TIMOTHY PICKERING.

The following reſolutions were proposed in the House of Delegates in Virginia, by George K. Taylor.

WHEREAS it appears that the unfriendly conduct of France towards the United States of America, has been encouraged by an opinion entertained by that nation, that there are many of our people ſo diſſatisfied with their own government as to be inclined to ſubmit to the interference of a foreign influence and power, rather than acquieſce under the preſent ſtate of things; and whereas it ſeems proper that we, whom the people have choſen to repreſent them, ſhould on this momentous occaſion expreſs our ſentiments, and what we conceive to be the ſentiments of our conſtituents:

Reſolved, That the government of the United States, eſtabliſhed more effectually to preſerve union, eſtabliſh juſtice, enſure domeſtic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and ſecure the bleſſings of liberty, is alone adequate to thoſe all-important purpoſes, and ought to be maintained and ſupported by the people of theſe ſtates, againſt every attempt to weaken, degrade or deſtroy it, at the riſque of every thing dear and valuable to man.

Reſolved, That the meaſures purſued by the Executive of the United States for preſerving peace and friendſhip with France, and for accommodating the differences which had ariſen between America and that nation, have been wiſe and liberal; and that their failure cannot in the remoteſt degree be imputed to our government.

Reſolved, That the French nation, in the depredations made on our commerce, in the mal-treatment of our unoffending citizens who have fallen into their power while purſuing their peaceable and lawful occupations, in their repeated contumelious and inſulting behavior towards our miniſters of peace, and in their final rejection of them when it was found that they could not be bent or ſeduced to a ſacrifice of the honor and intereſt of their country, have violated the laws of nations and the treaties which ſubſiſted between us; and have manifeſted towards us ſuch an irreconcileable ſpirit of hoſtility, as juſtifies the recourſe of our government to thoſe means of defence which a kind heaven has amply placed in our hands.

They were negatived and in lieu of them the following were ſubſtituted and carried, ayes 103 noes 58.

Reſolved, That the General Aſſembly of Virginia will co-operate with the authorities of the United States, in maintaining the independence, union, and conſtitution thereof, againſt the hoſtilities or intrigues of all foreign powers whatſoever; and that, although differences of opinion do exiſt, in relation to internal and domeſtic meaſures; yet, a charge that there is a party in this commonwealth, under the influence of any foreign power, is unfounded and calumnious.

Reſolved, That the General Aſſembly do, and will always behold with indignation, depredations on our commerce; inſults on our citizens; impreſſment of our ſeamen; or any other injuries committed on the people or government of the United States by foreign nations.

Reſolved nevertheleſs, That our ſecurity from invaſion, and the force of our militia, render a ſtanding army unneceſſary; that the policy of the United States, forbids a war of aggreſſion; that our whole reliance ought to be on ourſelves, and therefore, that while we will repel invaſion at every hazard, we ſhall deplore and deprecate the evils of war for any other cauſe.

And then the queſtion being put that the houſe do agree with the committee of the whole houſe in the reſolutions as reported, it paſſed in the affirmative.

REMARKS

On these proceedings of Virginia.

The reſolution which denies that there is a party in Virginia under the influence of a foreign power, carries its own condemnation with it in theſe proceedings.

Why was the reſolution rejected declaring that the government of the United States ought to be maintained againſt every attempt to weaken, degrade or deſtroy it?

Why was the reſolution rejected expreſſing an approbation of the meaſures of the United States in regard to France, which have been almoſt univerſally approved from one end of the continent to the other?

Why was the reſolution rejected charging the French nation with depredating our commerce, mal-treating our citizens, inſulting and rejecting our miniſters of peace, and purſuing a courſe of hoſtilities, that juſtify the United States in having recourſe to thoſe meaſures of defence which a kind Heaven has amply placed in our hands?

From what motives has the Virginia aſſembly rejected theſe reſolutions and ſubſtituted, that they will co-operate in maintaining the conſtitution againſt the intrigues and hoſtilities of foreign powers only, and not againſt the intrigues and rebellions of domeſtic powers or American citizens?

Whence is it that France, her inſults, perfidies and aggreſſions, are paſſed in ſilence? Whence is it that the defenſive operations of Congreſs in providing an army is denounced as being unneceſſary?

Whence is it, that the General Aſſembly declares that "they do and will always behold with indignation, depredations on our commerce, inſults on our citizens, impreſſment of our ſeamen, or any other injuries committed by foreign nations," but that while they repel invaſion at any hazard, they ſtill deplore and deprecate the evils of war for any other cauſe." Whence ſo puſilanimous a declaration that they will always behold with indignation, depredations, inſults and injuries upon our citizens upon the high ſea, without any effort to avert or repel them? Tame, indeed, muſt he the General Aſſembly always thus meanly, thus paſſively, to behold theſe things without reſiſtance. Such abject ſubmiſſion to France can only reaſonably be accounted for by imputing it to the deluſion, which certain individuals in that ſtate, under the influence of the French Republic, or from motives of ſelf aggrandizement, practice on the generality of the members who are deceived and miſled.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

The committee to whom were referred the reſolutions from the Legiſlature of Virginia, reſpecting the Alien and Sedition Laws paſſed at the laſt ſeſſion of Congreſs, Report, that they have the ſame under their moſt ſerious conſideration, and after mature deliberation declare it as their decided opinon, that no State Government by a legiſlative act is competent to declare an act of the Federal Government unconſtitutional and void, it being an improper interference with that juriſdiction which is excluſively veſted in the Courts of the United States. Independently of the above conſideration your Committee viewing the preſent criſis of affairs, believe it incumbent on them to expreſs their opinion, that a recommendation to repeal the Alien and Sedition Laws would be unwiſe and impolitic, they therefore ſubmit the propriety of adopting the following reſolution:

"Reſolved, That the General Aſſembly of Maryland highly diſapprove the ſentiments and opinions contained in the Reſolutions of the Legiſlature of Virginia, inaſmuch as they contain the unwarrantable doctrine, of the competency of a State Government, by a legiſlative act, to declare an act of the Federal Government unconſtitutional and void; and as they contain a requeſt for our co-operation with them in obtaining a repeal of Laws, which at this criſis we believe wiſe and politic."

On the ſecond reading of the report of the committee on the Reſolutions of the Legiſlature of Virginia, the queſtion was put that the Houſe concur with the following part of the Report, viz. The committee to whom were refered the Reſolutions from the Legiſlature of Virginia, reſpecting the Alien and Sedition Laws paſſed at the laſt ſeſſion of Congreſs, report, that they have had the ſame under their moſt ſerious conſideration, and after mature deliberation, declare it as their decided opinion, that no State Government by a legiſlative act, is competent to declare an act of the Federal Government unconſtitutional.

Affirmative 48.
Negative 18.

On progreſſion in reading the ſaid report, the queſtion was put, that the houſe concur with the following part of the ſaid report, viz. "and void"—Reſolved in the affirmative.

On further progreſſion in reading the ſaid report, the queſtion was put, that the houſe concur with the following part of the ſaid report, viz. "Independent of the above conſideration, your committee viewing the preſent criſis of affairs, believe it incumbent on them to expreſs their opinion, that a recommendation to repeal the Alien and Sedition Laws would be unwiſe and impolitic."

Affirmative 45,
Negative 21.

On further progreſſion in reading the ſaid report, the queſtion was put, that the words "and void" be ſtruck out of the reſolution therein contained.—Determined in negative.

On further progreſſion in reading the ſaid report, the queſtion was put, that the houſe aſſent to the following words in the ſaid reſolution. viz. "and as they contain a requeſt for our co-operation with them in obtaining a repeal of laws, which at this criſis, we believe, are wiſe and politic."

Affirmative 41,
Negative 24.

The report being read throughout, the queſtion was put, that the houſe concur with the report, and aſſent to the reſolution therein contained.

Affirmative 42,
Negative 25.

So it was reſolved in the affirmative.

City Commiſſioner's Office,

January 15, 1799.

For the information of the Citizens, the following extract of an act of Aſſembly, paſſed the 18th day of February, 1769, is now republiſhed.

Sect. 43. AND be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, ſhall, after the publication hereof, preſume to caſt, carry, draw out, or lay any dead horſe, or other dead carcaſe of cattle, ſheep, hog or dog, or any excrement or filth from vaults, privies or neceſſary houſes, and ſhall leave ſuch carcaſe, carrion or filth, without burying the ſame, a ſufficient depth in the ground, on any part of the commons of the ſaid city, or on or near any ſtreets, lanes, alleys or highways, within the ſaid city, diſtrict or townſhip adjoining the ſame, every perſon or perſons ſo offending and being convicted thereof, before any juſtice of the peace of the city or county of Philadelphia, reſpectively, ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch offence, the ſum of thirty ſhillings.

Agreeably to a reſolution of the Seleſt and Common Councils, dated the 10th of January 1799,

Notice is hereby given,

That a PIT or HOLE, is now prepared on the weſt ſide of Fifth ſtreet, from Schuylkill, between Vine and Saſſafras ſtreets.

And one other PIT or HOLE, is opened on the weſt ſide of Fifth ſtreet, from Schuylkill, between Walnut and Spruce ſtreets, where all filfth or excrement from vaults or privies, of the city of Philadelphia, ſhall be depoſited. Wherefore, if any perſon or perſons ſhall be found tranſgreſſing, they muſt expect to be puniſhed as the law directs, and that the ſame will be ſtrictly enforced.

TO THE Promoters of Literature.

THE managers of the Beula Seminary, impelled by motives of pure morality, having reſolved to diſpoſe of the following property by way of LOTTERY, in order to aſſiſt them in erecting a convenient building for the accommodation of one hundred ſtudents, and the neceſſary profeſſors in the different departments of ſcience—do offer for ſale three hundred and fifty lots in BEULA, each fifty-eight feet by one hundred and twenty-five, at twenty dollars per ticket, each ticket entitled to a lot to be determined by ballot; ten dollars to be paid on receipt of the ticket, and the remaining ten on the delivery of the deed. The ballot to take place before impartial men, as ſoon as the whole number of tickets are ſold.

The managers, anticipating the difficulty of obtaining caſh for the whole, have reſolved to receive an equivalent, for ſome of the lots, in ſelect books; philoſophical apparatus, or in produce and materials for building, delivered on the ſpot.

It may be obſerved, that the value of prizes in this lottery will be more than double the amount of all the tickets; for 350 lots, would at their average eſtimation, produce at leaſt 15,750 dollars; whilſt, according to the preſent propoſals, the ſum obtained for them will be only 7,000 dollars.

Tickets may be had during this winter, of Morgan J. Rhees, preſident of the board of managers, no. 177, ſouth Second-ſtreet, Philadelphia; who will receive propoſals and plans for the erection of the building. It is intended to be of brick or ſtone; its ſituation on the ſummit of a gradual riſing eminence, commanding an extenſive proſpect of the ſurrounding country; an obſervatory to be on its top.

Land and out lots in the vicinity of the Town may be had on moderate terms by applying as above. Mechanics and laborers, of good morals will meet with encouragement.

MAYOR'S OFFICE
REMOVED to 157 South Second-ſtreet.

WHEREAS,

BY an Act of Congress passed on the sixteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, the President of the United States is authorised to borrow on behalf of the United States from the Bank of the United States, or from any other body or bodies politic or corporate, or from any person or persons, and upon such terms and conditions as he shall judge most advantageous for the United States, a sum not exceeding five millions of dollars, so however, that no contract or engagement be made which shall preclude the United States from reimbursing any sum or sums borrowed at any time after the expiration of fifteen years from the date of such loan. And whereas, it is declared by the said Act, that so much as may be necessary of the surplus of the duties on Imports and Tonnage beyond the permanent appropriations heretofore charged upon them by law, shall be pledged and appropriated for paying the interest, and also for paying and discharging the principal sum or sums of all the monies which may be borrowed, according to the term or terms which may be fixed, pursuant to the authority aforesaid—And whereas by the said Act, the faith of the United States is pledged to establish sufficient permanent Revenues for making up any deficiency that may hereafter appear in the provisions before-mentioned for paying the interest and principal sums, or either of them, of any monies which may be borrowed pursuant to the said Act, And whereas the President of the United States did by an Act or Commission under his hand dated the ninth day of January in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, authorise and empower, the Secretary of the Treasury, to borrow on behalf of the United States, any sum not exceeding in the whole, five millions of dollars and to make such contract or contracts as should be necessary, and for the interest of the United States, in pursuance of the Act of Congress above recited.

Now therefore, the undersigned, Secretary of the Treasury, in pursuance of the Act of Congress, and the authority from the President of the United States, above mentioned, doth hereby on behalf of the United States of America, contract and engage in manner following, to wit.

1st. A book for receiving subscriptions to a Loan of five millions of dollars for the use of the United States shall be opened in the city of Philadelphia, at the Bank of the United States on Thursday the twenty eighth day of February ensuing, which book shall continue open for the purpose of receiving subscriptions, until the whole of the said five millions of dollars shall be subscribed. If more than five millions of dollars shall be subscribed on the first day of opening the said loan, the surplus shall be deducted in proportion to the sums subscribed by individuals, exceeding four thousand dollars.

2d. For every hundred dollars which may be subscribed there shall be forthwith deposited and paid the sum of twelve dollars and fifty cents, and like payments of twelve dollars and fifty cents, shall be made within the first ten days of the months of April, May, June, July, August September and October ensuing. The Secretary of the Treasury however reserves the right of reducing the number of installments by special agreements, with the individuals who may become subscribers.

3d. On the failure of payment of any installment of the sums subscribed according to the tenor of the second article, the next preceeding installment of twelve dollars and fifty cents, which shall have been paid, for every hundred dollars subscribed shall be forfeited to the United States.

4th, The sums subscribed shall and may be paid to the credit of the United States, at the Bank of the United States, or at the offices of discount and deposit of the said Bank at Boston, New-York, Baltimore, or Charleston, or at either of the Banks of Salem, in Massachusetts, Newport and Providence in Rhode-Island, Hartford in Connecticut, Albany in New-York, or Alexandria in Virginia, for which payments, the receipts of the Cashiers of the Offices of Discount and Deposit and of the Banks aforesaid shall be received at the Bank of the United States as equivalent to money; but no payment of a subsequent installment shall be received at any other place than that where the first installment was paid, except at the Bank of the United States; in case any deposits shall be made at the offices of Discount or Deposit, or at either of the Banks aforesaid, which shall not be applied to [illegible] payment of the first installment of subscription to the Loan aforesaid, the said deposits forthwith refunded by directions from [illegible] or number of shares of one [illegible] subscribed, certificates of the Bank [illegible]

ON Friday evening last about six o'clock, JOHN SHIELDS, Jun. second son of Mr. John Shields, of this city, was assaulted by four ruffians in Front street, near the Auction Store of Edward Fox, Esq. He made all the resistance in the power of a youth of fifteen;—finding himself overpowered by numbers, he endeavored to escape; one of the fellows pursued him, threw him, jumped on his leg and broke it. Any person that can give any information of the name or place of abode of any of the four, will confer a favor by calling at No. 22, Chesnut street.

Valuable Property for Sale.

FOR SALE.

THAT well known Estate, called SHREWSBURR FARM, formerly the residence of General John Cadwaladar, situate on Sassafras River, in Kent county, Maryland—containing about 1900 acres of prime LAND, upwards of 500 of which are in woods. The Buildings are all excellent, and consist of a handsome Dwelling House, two large Barns with Cow houses, Stables for fifty horses, a spacious treading floor under cover, a granary, two Overseer's houses, two ranges of two story buildings for Negroes (one of them new and of brick), Corn houses a Smoak house, &c. &c—The whole Estate being nearly surrounded by water, it requires but little fencing, and has a good Shad and Herring fishery. It is conveniently situated for both the Philadelphia and Baltimore markets, with two landings on a navigable river but a short sail from Baltimore. There is a large Peach, and two large Apple Orchards on the premises; also, a variety of excellent fruits of different kinds. The soil is mostly a rich loam.—The whole will be sold together or divided into smaller farms (for which the buildings are conveniently situated) as may suit the purhaser. The Stock on said Farm, consisting of Horses, Cattle, Sheep &c. will also be disposed of.—For further particulars apply to GEORGE HASTINGS on the premises, or to the subscriber, in Philadelphia.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

JUNE 27, 1798.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of an act, passed during the present session of Congress, so much of the act entituled "An Act making further provision for the support of public credit, and for the redemption of the public debt"—passed the third day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, as bars from settlement or allowance, Certificates, commonly called Loan Office and final settlement Certificates, and Indents of Interests, is suspended until the twelfth day of June, which will be in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine.

That on the liquidation and settlement of the said Certificates, and Indents of Interest, at the Treasury, the Creditors will be entitled to receive Certificates of funded Three Per Cent. Stock equal to the amount of the said Indents, and the arrearages of interest due on their said Certificates, prior to the first day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety one.

That the principal sums of the said Loan Office and final settlement Certificates, with the interest thereon, since the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety one, will be discharged after liquidation at the Treasury, by the payment of interest and reimbursement of principal, equal to the sums which would have been payable thereon, if the said Certificates had been subscribed, pursuant to the Acts making provision for the debts of the United States, contracted during the late war, and by the payment of other sums, equal to the market value of the remaining Stock, which would have been created by such subscriptions as aforesaid, which market value will be determined by the Comptroller of the Treasury.

OLIVER WOLCOTT,
Secretary of the Treasury.

A SHORT AND PRACTICAL

ESSAY,

ON

FARMING:

BEING the experience of a farmer of about sixty years of age; near forty years of which were spent in England, Essex county, on land where farming is done in the greatest perfection: and near seven years on three hundred and twenty acres of worn-out land in Pottsgrove and Alloway creek, in Salem county, West-Jersey:

Shewing the means whereby these worn-out lands may be improved; and that the means are in the power of almost every farmer:
